Eagle Towers Apartment Complex story

A Boutique Residence Rebuilt With Purpose and Craft.

Eagle Towers is more than an apartment building, it is a complete transformation shaped by craftsmanship, resilience, and the belief that every space can rise into its highest potential. When John Bascombe first took on the original structure, it was a tired, aging block nearing the end of its life cycle.

Most men would have walked away. John saw infinite possibilities!

Drawing on decades of practical experience in electrical work, carpentry, plastering, and structural repair, he vacated every tenant, not to abandon the building, but to “restore it from the inside out”. What followed was a multi-year reconstruction carried out by John’s own hands, supported only by skilled craftsmen when necessary.

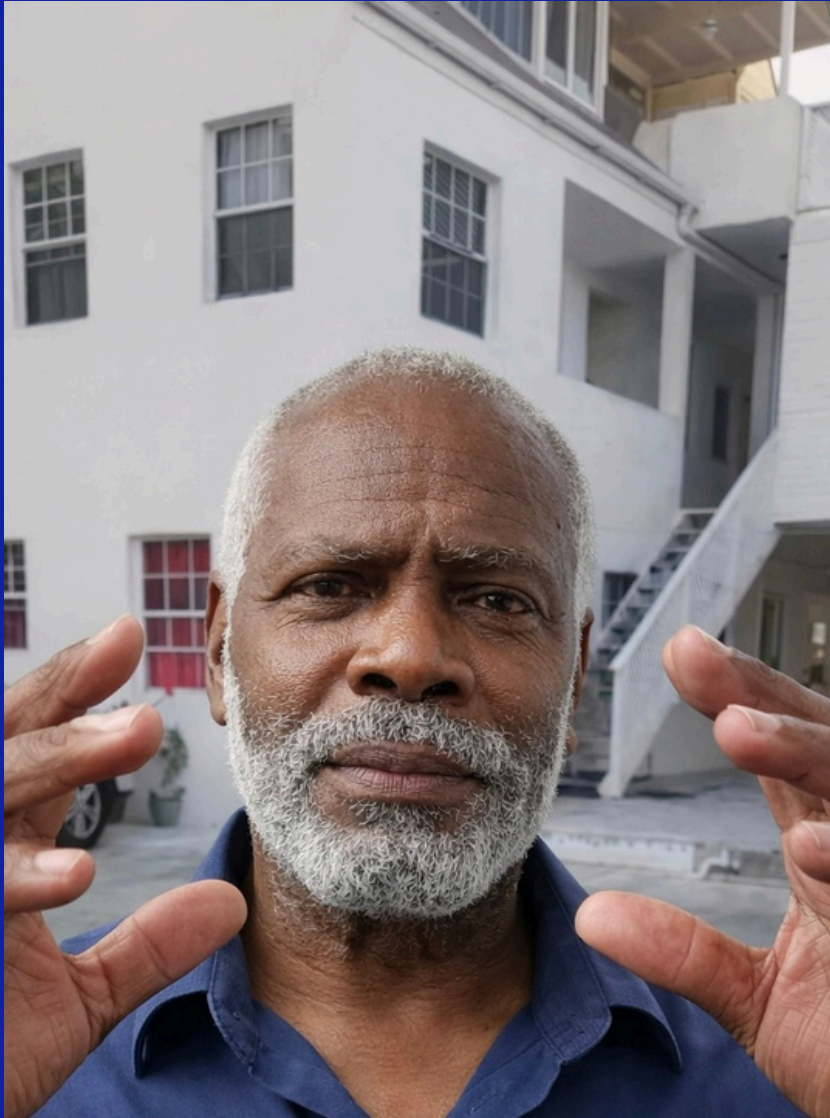

He rebuilt closets and cupboards, added bathrooms and kitchens, repaired and replaced fixtures, corrected structural flaws, upgraded electrics to modern standards, enhanced lighting for safety, repainted every surface, reconfigured layouts for comfort and flow, leveled and paved the parking area, and re-roofed where necessary.

Every corner of Eagle Towers carries his fingerprints. Every detail reflects his patience, skill, and pride in his work.

This is not a development. These are apartments transformed into crafted homes, rebuilt for stability, comfort, and long-stay living.

The Hands Behind Eagle Towers

John E. Bascombe is a self-made Barbadian entrepreneur whose craftsmanship, integrity, and attention to detail shaped every apartment at Eagle Towers Apartment Complex and Phoenix Rising Apartment Complex. With decades of experience in electrical work, carpentry, plastering, and structural repair, he rebuilt this mid-rise community with the care and precision that define his work.

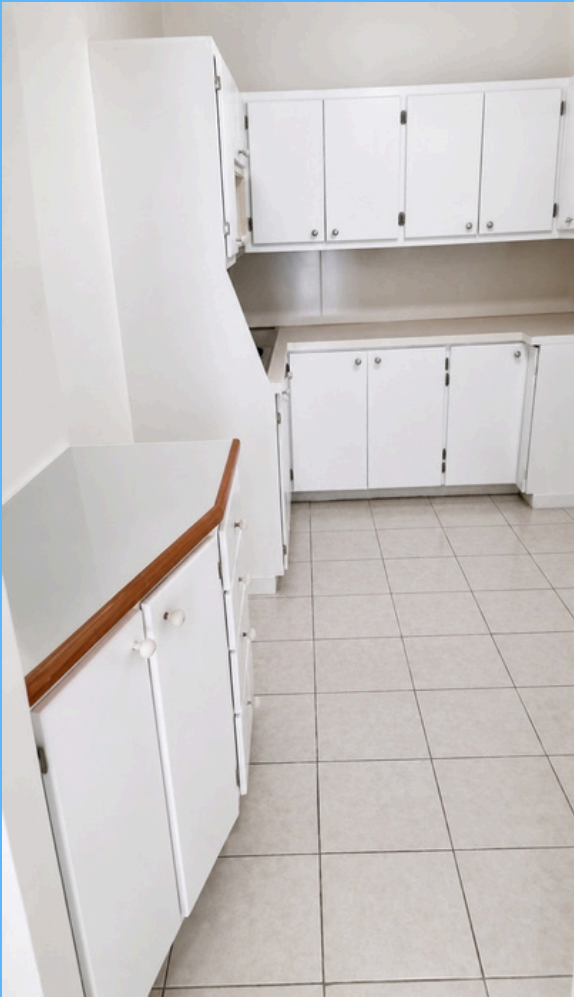

Today, John manages Eagle Towers with the same hands-on commitment - ensuring every apartment remains safe, well-crafted, and continuously maintained.

His philosophy is simple:-

A home should be safe, secure, comfortable, and built to last.
